INTRODUCTION

ITALIAN WINE IS BIG -- It profoundly connects people & food.

Italy and its wines have profoundly influenced how we produce, consume, and even think about wine all over the world. Our list reflects this over-sized influence. While we are passionate about Italy, we offer wines from all over the globe.

This is partly because we are lucky to have so many international wines available here in the Bay Area, but primarily because our two most important considerations are: 'Does this wine complement our menu?' and 'Is it a great value?'

Consequently, we are especially proud of the UNIQUE AND OUTSTANDING section. The usual 'Other Wines' or 'Misc' labels didn't feel right. The phrase 'unique and outstanding' is taken from Chef Pablo. he often uses this phrase when describing a new ingredient or supplier he's discovered; they are qualities he respects and that get the whole team excited. It's our way of saying, 'You should check this out!'

We are proud of every bottle on this list—from the most humble finds to rare, special-occasion indulgences. We appreciate you being here. Please let us know if you have any questions or need assistance. The entire staff is involved in ongoing wine education; however, we have a sommelier and a chef who knows wine more than most sommeliers, to help you.

Not only is chardonnay one of the most popular grape varieties in the world, it is one of the most versatile, At its best, chardonnay expresses specific qualities based on where and how it was grown. Our selection of California chardonnay possesses soft acidity and ripe fruit, making them approachable in their youth, but still able to develop with age impressively.
